

Digital
Recording
Software for 21st Century
Government

Make meetings available over the Internet for access by the public, elected officials, and staff.

Save Time Every Day

Including all the features of Gov Recorder and Gov Archiver, it is now easy and affordable to webcast public meetings:

- ▶ Point and click to share meetings on LAN or Web
- ▶ Save time creating meeting minutes
- ▶ Save time using CDs for storage and duplication
- ▶ No more juggling cassette tapes
- ▶ Easy to use, just like a traditional tape recorder
- ▶ Hear even the softest voice with clear, digital audio
- ▶ Fast note taking to highlight important meeting events

Digital Audio Recording

Gov Webcaster digitally records meetings on Windows XP laptop and desktop computers. Notes can be entered easily during and after the meeting to create an outline of agenda items, discussion points, action items, motions, and votes. Gov Webcaster makes it easier to produce meeting minutes with features like foot pedal support, slow playback and VoiceBoost audio enhancement for maximum clarity and intelligibility. Availability of the annotated recording in an archive also reduces the need for detailed meeting minutes.

Create Archives for Easy Access

Meeting recordings are stored in digital files for duplication on CD, or for retrieval from a network server, or a web server. Just point and click for complete control over electronic distribution of recordings. Gov Webcaster uses industry-standard digital audio files for reliable, permanent storage. No need for complex streaming software or expensive hosting services. Local Area Network archives can be stored on any shared network drive and Webcast archives can be hosted on any web server.
